

“Responsibility to be a leader”
Annual report 2012

TNK-BP acquisition transformed Rosneft from Russian petroleum industry leader into the largest publicly traded company in the world by hydrocarbon production and reserves.

Solution: line Responsibility to be a leader sums up a number of stories that illustrate the idea of the report: Having become considerably bigger the Company is getting more than ever aware of its role, responsibility and influence on global processes and trade as well as local communities, environment and ecology in the regions of its operations and puts a lot of effort for positive changes.

